

AUTO KNOCKS LOCOMOTIVE PONY TRUCK FROM TRACK

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 1.—An automobile which ran head on into a passenger train on the Middletown and Hummelstown branch, of the Reading Railway at the State highway crossing, East Middletown, struck the locomotive with such force that it lifted the pony truck of the engine from the track.

Miss Ella May Henry and Mrs. John B. Henry, of Rheims, and Mrs. T. J. Hoyer, of Baltimore, were seriously injured.

U. S. NOTIFIED TREATY WITH HUNGARY IS SIGNED

Official notification of the signing of a treaty of peace between the United States and Hungary was received by the State Department this afternoon. United States Commissioner Smith is understood to have signed for the United States.

No statement was made as to the content of the treaty, but it is understood to be similar to that signed with Germany, protecting all American rights under the Versailles treaty, but exempting this nation from any of the responsibilities of that pact.

MEDBURY

Says Some Pedestrians Never Have Any Luck.

They Get Hit by a Delivery Wagon
When There's a Swell Limousine
Right Behind It

By John P. Medbury

Statistics show that there are twenty-three pedestrians to every automobile, but reckless drivers are rapidly cutting down this average.

Pretty soon the only pedestrians left will be the ones who are driving the machines.

Of course, if a chauffeur hits you, you should get his license number, but it's as hard to get a number from an automobile as it is from central.

When you hear a broker say "I made a killing on the street this morning" you don't know whether he sold a lot of oil stock or ran over somebody.

People used to walk because they were afraid to ride in machines. Now they ride in machines because they're afraid to walk.

Every time you cross the street your heart's in your mouth. Then some guy honks a horn and you swallow it.

Two years ago a man tried to cross the street in front of an automobile and he hasn't reached the other side yet.

Some people claim they are not afraid of traffic because their guardian angel is with them. You look out for yourself, the angel can fly.

It's all right to say "Get thee behind me, Satan," but when you're crossing the street let Satan go first.

The big motor corporations claim that automobiles are not a luxury, but a necessity. If it wasn't for machines, traffic cops would have to do their loafing up on the sidewalk.

Whenever you see a rich man sitting in a swell limousine with a chauffeur in the front seat and a footman standing at the side, remember that it's not a luxury, it's a necessity.

The machine is a necessity, but the guy who's sitting in it isn't.

A limousine with a heavily jeweled woman riding in it is nothing but a showcase on wheels.

Some pedestrians never have any luck at all. They get run over by a delivery truck when there was a swell touring car right behind it.

He gets sore at himself because he didn't wait for the next machine. He sees stars for the first ten minutes, then he sees lawyers for the next ten years.

The delivery truck driver won the case. The guy he hit was supposed to be out of town, so technically he wasn't run over.

Most of the time the only damages you get out of an automobile accident are a couple of broken legs and a fractured skull.

BAN ON BAVARIAN PAPERS

FOMENTS GERMAN HATRED

MUNICH, Sept. 1.—President Ebert's proclamation suspending Bavarian newspapers as a result of the political furor which followed the assassination of Matthias Erzberger is adding fuel to the fires of hatred between South Germany and Prussia.

The Bavarian cabinet at a special meeting today expressed strong disapproval of the proclamation, and it is doubtful if it will be enforced.

The separatist movement has become much stronger in the last few days. Adherents of the movement to place Crown Prince Rupprecht upon the Bavarian throne are openly defying the democrats.

No More Misery After Eating

Just Takes An Eaton

"The first dose of Eaton did wonders for me. I take it at meals and am no longer bothered with indigestion," writes Mrs. Ellen Harris.

Thousands of people, like this dear lady, gratefully testify about Eaton, which does its wonders by taking up and carrying out the excess acidity and gases which bring on indigestion, heartburn, bloating, belching and food repeating. Acid stomach also causes about seventy other non-organic ailments. Protect yourself. A big box of Eaton costs but a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

LUX

THE FLEISHER YARNS
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Lever Bros. Co.,
Cambridge, Mass.
Gentlemen:

We are suggesting to women who buy our yarns to wash them in Lux. A harsh soap would shrink woollens. The Lux flakes are so thin that they dissolve quickly and completely. This means that there is no possibility of bits of solid soap sticking to the soft wool and yellowing it.

We are glad to say that we can trust yarns of the most delicate color and weight to Lux with the assurance that the result of the washing will be entirely satisfactory to our customers and to us.

Very truly yours,
S. B. & B. W. Fleisher

S. B. & B. W. Fleisher is one of the leading manufacturers who have recently made a thorough investigation of the safe way to wash fine fabrics. For their own protection as well as their customers' these manufacturers are urging that their products be laundered in Lux. Complete laundering directions in booklet form free on request.
